MINISTERIAL ASSN. HOLDS MEETING

The Rosecommon Crawford Counties Ministerial Association convened Monday, Nov. 5th, in the Congregation Church, Rosecommon. Rev. Donald Brady, president of the association was in charge.

Several matters affecting the churches and the communities where they are located were discussed. Among these problems were the following—Bingo, which it was reported was being played in at least three places in open violation of the Law. The secretary was instructed to enter a protest with the Michigan State Police Post at Houghton Lake.

It was agreed to urge our people to read selected passages of

Somewhere Over the Atlantic

A/3c Larry H. Kolka, of Grayling, who has been stationed at McDill A. F. B., Fla., wrote the following letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kolka:

Dearest Mom and Dad:

I got tired of sitting here on the plane doing nothing so, I thought I'd drop a few lines. I can tell you I am fine but can't tell you where I am because I don't know. All I know, I am somewhere over the Atlantic Ocean, on my way to North Africa. We left McDill last night and we still haven't got where we are going. We've been flying about 27 hours now. Well, Mom, I've seen beautiful Bermuda last night and the Azores today, and I will be seeing North Africa in a couple of hours. I hope you can read this because it's pretty hard to write when you're up in the air 20,000 feet. The weather is pretty rough now but we flew over most of the bad weather. We had a little bit of trouble with something, but they fixed it while we were over the Azores. I would sure hate to go down here a thousand miles from nowhere. There isn't much threat of that. This is about the same place that the air force plane went down a few weeks ago. I don't have too much to say except I don't want you to worry about me and I hope everything is fine around home. I wish you could see some of these places. It is very beautiful from up here. You can see old volcanoes and deep craters in the earth. I took a few pictures but I don't think they'll come out. There is a full moon out tonight and with all the stars glittering around it, it is really breath-taking. Well, Mom, I guess I've babbled enough for this time. I'll write more when I get to Morocco.

Mrs. A. R. Welch tells us that it was 43 years ago, on November 6th, that the worst storm in some 80 years hit the north central states, particularly Michigan, bringing snow and blizzard conditions. She has good reason to remember the date, as her husband Allie Ray, drowned on Lake St. Clair in that storm.

Purchasing Agent . . .

The housewife is the purchasing agent in most American homes. So every producer and seller of goods must be vitally concerned with what advertising medium she finds most influential when it comes to making out her shopping list.

The Illinois Consumer Analysis recently conducted 5,000 interviews in 15 Illinois markets in which this question was asked: "What form of advertising do you find most helpful in buying general merchandise?" The answers were: newspapers, 50 per cent; television, 8.5 per cent; magazine, 6.7 per cent; radio, 1.1 per cent.

The newer media serve their purpose and are here to stay—but nothing can supplant or equal the local newspaper in the esteem and interest of the public at large.

Excellent Law . . .

The Portland Oregonian has published a letter from a reader, Walter F. Buse, which says: "I have been reading the Taft-Hartley law, and from the standpoint of the laboring man, I think it is an excellent law. It protects the laboring man from the businessmen who want to exploit labor, and from the labor leaders who just want power and money for themselves."

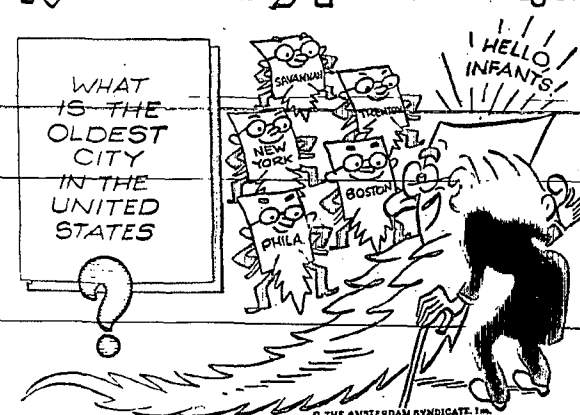

"I am a strong believer in labor unions. They are a necessary part of our American economy, but they should be organized from the bottom up and not from the top down. The laboring man himself should have the right to say where the money should be spent. It should not be spent for power and political ambitions of its leaders."

Just what logical argument can there be against this position?

population?

Town Journal, working from the best available data, has provided the answer.

Small-town and farm residents hold a clear voting majority in 42 of the 48 states. They control 84 of the 96 U. S. Senate seats—and dominate 275 of the 435 Congressional districts. And—of very great political importance under the rules that govern our Congress—they elect 18 of the 19 Senate committee chairmen and 15 of the House Committee chairmen.

The grass-roots is the center of power in this republic.

Interesting Items of News Gathered From the Files of the Avalanche of 23 Years Ago.

November 16, 1933

Deer hunters are usually looking for tracking snow when the hunting season opens. This year there is an abundance. Fully 18 inches of snow covered the ground on the level and in many places the drifts were quite deep. Besides, the recent heavy fall of snow seemed to hang in the air, making visibility difficult and also making travel in the wild lands anything but pleasant. And an unusually low temperature didn't make hunting any too pleasant. The temperature during the early morning hours was down to 5 degrees above zero, and with a damp atmosphere quite unusual to Northern Michigan, the air had a penetrating chill.

Frank Wetzman and Aleck Schreiber of Detroit are spending a few days in Grayling enjoying the hunting. Farnham Matson visited his sister, Miss Elizabeth Matson at Battle Creek College Thursday of last week. Friday he was accompanied home from Ann Arbor by his parents, the Ethers Matsons, who have been there for the past two weeks, the former having been a patient in the University Hospital.

Maurice Gorman and family are enjoying a visit this week from his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Schneider and son Jack of Boyne City. Mr. Schneider, who had never hunted deer before nor had ever seen one in the woods, was lucky to fill his license the first day when he landed an 8-pointer.

Ted Wheeler is doing the janitor work at school these days while Sherman Neal is trying to fill his deer license.

Carl Michelson, of Mason, Esbern Hanson, Oscar Hanson and Charles Fehr left Tuesday for their cabin "Sunrise Club" on the AuSable to enjoy deer hunting.

Mrs. M. J. Sheehy and family and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Laurant have been enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Crump and children Maxine, Junior and Joanne, of Toledo, Ohio, since Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ewalt, of Flint, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Peterson and family. Bernard Bromwell and Stanley Palmer of Ludington and Fred Bromwell of Lake Leelanau are guests at the home of their sister, Mrs. Adolph Peterson for their annual deer hunt.

Ex-Governor Wilber Brucker of Detroit is among the notables in this section enjoying the deer hunting. He with a party of friends arrived Tuesday and they are guests at the Northwoods Club at Lovell.

Searching parties were mustered together yesterday and sent into the woods along the Manistee River to try and locate some parties who were lost. It happened that Tuesday morning Frank Wetzman and Aleck Schreiber, a couple of Detroit parties, went to the Manistee in company with Grant Thompson as their guide to hunt ducks. Spike MacNeven was to drive Mr. Wetzman's car to Bayou landing where the men would be waiting for him at 6 o'clock. Not wanting to make the trip alone Spike took along Lionel McCain. It was snowing and in some way they became lost and their car became lodged in the snow and they could go no further. So they abandoned the car and went to look for somewhere to spend the night. In the meantime the other parties had waited for hours and as the Detroit gentlemen were not used to this kind of life they became so fati-

Our village council are taking effective measures to keep smallpox away from here. Vaccination is acknowledged to be the only known preventive, and hundreds have already sought the remedy.

Luke Bosom has been up from West Branch for a hunt with the boys. He is enjoying the zone if nothing more. He says the woods down the river are full of hunters.

Miss Elsie Salling celebrated her thirteenth birthday last week.

Wednesday evening assisted by a baker's dozen of her young friends and a sufficient number of ladies to keep the youngsters in line. It was a jolly crowd, and all will remember it as a lovely milestone in their journey through life.

E. H. Sorenson was down from Michelson one day last week and reports good business in the store and everyone satisfied. He had a fine birdseye view of their embryo city on a post card, showing the two mammoth mills and yards, and twenty comfortable cottages for the men on one street, and a good schoolhouse.

The audience room of the M. E. Church has been undergoing repairs for the past two weeks. Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hoedel, Nov. 15th, a son. All doing well.

Mrs. Sarah Corwin returned from her visit with her sister in Reed City Tuesday.

After two months or more of waiting for the electric lights, our citizens were more than pleased to see the lights turned on again. They seem to be better than ever.

While I was there a fussy little guy—a spectator, like me—came up to the foreman on the job and started making all sorts of suggestions: "Shouldn't it go a little farther left there?... Why don't you bank the curves more?... Those ditches are awful deep"... and so on, and on.

The foreman took it as long as he could, then asked politely, "How does she look for length?"

A bird raised one of them fired and missed the bird, but peppered the other man who was a few rods behind. Dr. Insley was sent for and his car being out of commission just then Mr. Hanson drove him to the lake with his Buick. The party was found not materially injured, and Mr. Hanson and Dr. Insley had started for home when the rear axle of the machine was cleared off—just inside the wheel. They walked a mile and half to the nearest phone and called Esbern Hanson, who ran out with his auto and brought them in through mud, snow and cold. They all admit it was not a "joy ride."

lief comes only through little unplanned happenings. A glimpse of hope comes from a place it is least expected.
This was illustrated for me the other day when, after reading the reports from Israel and Hungary, my head sank and I despaired for civilization. Believe me, Friend, if the entire world had erupted at that moment, I wouldn't have been surprised.
And then I heard voices, laughing, joyful, piping. I looked out my window and saw the children coming home from school. Two little girls, one in hand-me-downs much too big for her, the other in crackling new clothes, were skipping along, arms around each other, waiving couldn't help thinking of their mothers, who would never know each other, who would as a matter of fact, link from such a friendship.
But here, at a time, their two worlds met, trusting, loving and giving hope to a weary old man.
Children must be taught to hate, systematically and patiently, they must have inferiority pointed out to them. Left to themselves they would only love. We adults, have done a fine job of showing them the ways of life. We have spent centuries teaching our babies whom to mistrust, whom to jeer, whom to stone. These two little girls are about ripe for their lessons.
"Ah well... as I said, for a moment there was relief from the enveloping stench of despair. Old Phineas has been having a chuckle or two over something else that happened a couple weeks ago. You remember my mentioning our local columnist? The one that goes by the name of Bill Maple or Jim Evergreen, or something like that?
Well he rarely agrees with my way of thinking, but the fellow is so fancy with the words that by the time I've finished reading his column he's swung me around to his point of view, darn him.
Course the conversation doesn't last long, but it does take place.
However, the time that made me laugh was one time he can't change my mind. Somehow he got hold of my last letter to you and, not recognizing my name, ventured a guess, in print mind you, of who I really was.
And Friend, he couldn't have been wronger. I wonder how many people around town know me well enough to correct him. Not many, I suppose.
Not even after last Monday night, we boiled coffee for the little ones' Open House at the School. Had a fine crowd, that's always the most fun of the year, when all the parents troop through their youngsters' rooms seeing the handwork and the best work papers and listening to the teachers tell them how wonderful their children are. Parents are human like the rest of us. And that in itself is encouraging.
Sincerely yours,
Phineas Thaddeus Appleby

Grayling Scout Troop Committee Holds Meeting
The regular meeting of the committee of the Grayling Scout Troop was held on Thursday, November 8th at the Chamber of Commerce office. It was decided to extend the time of the scout meeting on Tuesday evenings to 7 to 8:30 to give more time for work.
It was also decided to invite the fathers of the scouts to attend the troop meetings. There is a definite need for several men to come forward to handle tests for Scouts seeking merit badges.
There is also a need for a building suitable for a Scout club house and several old buildings are now under consideration. There still is a need for equipment and anyone having any army or scout equipment such as mess kits, canteens etc. is asked to donate them to the troop. It was also pointed out that for about $175 a Scout could be sponsored to the National Scout Jubilee. Organizations who might be interested in sponsoring a Scout to the national gathering should contact any member of the committee.
The committee will meet with the troop on Tuesday, November 20 and hold a board of review. At last Thursday's meeting, Al Dase-n was named to head troop organization, Clyde Koch, programming; Ward Elison, publicity; George Schable, quartermaster; Ernest Larson, advancement; procurement of old uniforms and equipment, John A. B. MacAuley and

Grayling Township, Crawford County, Michigan.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that on the 3rd day of November, 1956, a petition signed by 30 owners of real estate located in the 1st and 2nd Additions to PORT-AGE LAKE PARK, Grayling Township, Crawford County, Michigan, was filed with the Board of County Road Commissioners of said County, for the absolute abandonment, discontinuance and vacation of all that part of PORTAGE LAKE DRIVE extending from the intersection of said Portage Lake Drive with the Easterly end of Lake Avenue to said 2nd Addition to the intersection of said Portage Lake Drive with Oak Park Drive in said 1st Addition, for the following reasons stated in said petition:

1. Because both of said plats were made in 1901 and no part of said street so designated as PORTAGE LAKE DRIVE extending from its intersection with Lake Avenue to its intersection with Oak Park Drive has ever been opened or used as a public street, nor has public money ever been expended thereon.

2. Because said PORTAGE LAKE DRIVE is shown on plat as having a width of 60 feet whereas because of erosion and water action no part thereof is now of said width, some parts of the same being now almost entirely under the water of Lake Margrethe.

3. Because as it now exists it would be impossible to open said street to a width of 60 feet or to any width that would be satisfactory for a public street.

4. Because no part of said street having been opened or used or worked within 4 years after the time it was laid out, the same has ceased to be a road for any purpose.

5. Because to open said road as it now exists would require the expenditure of public money in substantial amounts which in the opinion of petitioners would not be justified.

6. Because the absolute abandonment and vacation of that part of PORTAGE LAKE DRIVE above described would not cut off any existing access to Lake Margrothe, it being the intent of said petition that access over existing streets leading to Lake Margrethe shall not be disturbed.

AND NOTICE IS HEREBY
FURTHER GIVEN, that a hearing on said petition will be held before the Board of County Road Commissioners of said County at the office of said Board, 320 State Street, Grayling, Michigan, on Friday, the 7th day of December 1956, at 10:00 o'clock in the A. M. and all persons interested in said matter may be heard at said time and place.

Sidelights Of The School Election held On Tuesday, November 6th

The Senior Class in Economics carried out a full scale "mock" election for the four grades at Grayling High School under the direction of their teacher, Art Thayer on Tuesday, November 6th. The combined results were carried in last week's Avalanche but several interesting sidelights were not reported due to limited space.

The Senior Class gave Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard Nixon a vote of 35 to 8 for Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver but turned right around with a 27 vote for Governor G. Mennen Williams to 18 for Mayor Albert E. Cobo. The rest of the Republican candidates, however, both State and County, were given pluralities.

The Senior vote for the short term on the Supreme Court was a tie but they gave George Edwards the nod 28 to 15 for the long term. The Constitutional amendment was approved 41 to 4.

The Junior Class approved the GOP bell wethers even heavier with a 39 to 7 vote and gave Cobo 29 to 17 for Williams. The remainder of the ticket was Republican with the vote on the two Supreme Court posts identical with the Seniors. The Juniors also approved the amendment 26 to 7.

The Sophomores followed the Junior Class in their balloting. The only difference being in the number of votes for each candidate. The Freshmen Class also followed suit with heavier Republican majorities than the others.

Write in votes were given to Rolla Felling for Sheriff on the Democratic ticket by all four classes while the Freshmen wrote in Lawrence Hunter and Roy Meyers for Circuit Court Commissioner. The Sophomores wrote in Beulah Neafie and Leo Lovely for Commissioner and the Seniors wrote in Esmond Houghton for Surveyor.

The Lost Is Found

A couple of weeks ago, on a Sunday Jim McClain went pheasant hunting near Standish. When he got home he realized he had lost his billfold. He thought it probably was lost while he was climbing over a fence, and when his brother Jerry, Otto Peterson and Burton McWilliams went hunting in the same area the following Wednesday, he asked them to look in that spot. They searched and found nothing, but while walking down a railroad track about five miles from the search area, and amid tall grass and weeds, Otto Peterson happened to see the billfold lying half-hidden. By that time the billfold had been given up as lost for good, and no one was really looking for it. Some distance farther along the track, and on the other side, Jerry found Jim's handkerchief, also a comb. Jim still doesn't know how, in just walking along, these articles could have gotten out of his pockets. They did, but now they're back in, thanks to sharp eyes and some good luck.

These Michigan children are fighting tuberculosis at Sunshine Hospital in Grand Rapids. A nurse holds Andrew Daniels, 18 months, blinded by TB meningitis. Gary Follett is in a brace for spinal tuberculosis. Judy Kay Schultz is back in the sanatorium for the second time after her disease relapsed. Michigan citizens, by buying Christmas Seals, are sharing directly in the costs of research to test a drug aimed at preventing tuberculous meningitis in children.

Grayling Misses In Bid For All American Cities Award Contest

It was revealed today by Robert M. Hayes, secretary-manager of the Crawford County Chamber of Commerce that his office had been advised by George H. Gallup, president of the National Municipal League that Grayling's bid for the All American Cities Award had not placed in the top 28 finalists.

In a letter congratulating Grayling on their tremendous strides, Mr. Gallup said, "The tremendous response of civic leaders and organizations from all over the United States to the 1956 All-American Cities contest gave the Screening Committee which picked the 22 finalists an exciting task. After intensive study of all of the evidence and long deliberation, the Committee finally selected the 22 communities on the attached list."

"The 1956 contest attracted a record-breaking 164 nominees. This fact goes far to explain the absence of your city from the list of finalists. The effort put forth in your community and shown in the material you submitted is noteworthy and warmly appreciated. You have the sincere thanks of the Committee and the National Municipal League for your work and your interest in the All-American Cities Awards."

"Because community-wide civic effort is not a 'one-shot' performance but a continuing as well as a deep and rewarding experience, we hope there will be further efforts by your citizens to achieve new objectives in your area. These efforts may be such that your community will wish to enter the contest another year."

Kalamazoo was the only city in Michigan to be selected as one of the finalists.
